Overview

“Sea Goddess” is a 1956 Chris-Craft 54’ Constellation. 1956 was this model’s inaugural year for the top-of-the-line mahogany cruisers of her day. She is a classic motor yacht that is ready for her next owners to complete the restoration. She has mahogany throughout and on her hull. There has been a custom wet bar and countertop added aft of the helm. There are large forward and aft sun decks ready for the wind, sun, and its new owners to enjoy.

You can board “Sea Goddess” from the port or starboard side, midships. The aft and forward decks have plenty of room for entertaining with lots of open deck that includes free standing chairs, bar stools, and bench type seating on the stern. The salon is very spacious and has a sleeper couch to the port side. The down galley and dinette area have lots of room and the dinette can also be converted to an extra sleeping area as well. With a full-size refrigerator, she can hold plenty of food for your outings.

Forward area has a V-Berth state room with twin bunk beds and a head. The aft area has two more state rooms, the master aft cabin has a double berth and midships has twin bunk beds. The aft area also has two more heads with a shower in between them.

She moves along with twin 7.4L Mercruiser engines with 320 hp each and low hours. All your electrical needs are maintained with an 11 KW Westerbeke onboard generator.

Come take a look at this gem and see what she may have instore for you!
