EXTERIOR

Immediately out of the main salon doors to on the main deck aft is the storage for the tenders, which are launched and retrieved through hatches using ceiling cranes. Further aft is the canvas-covered alfresco dining area consisting of a table and 10 chairs placed close to the stern. The rest of the deck is left clear. A central staircase connects to the upper deck which is enclosed with screens for all-weather dining.

Guests can choose whether to have the sundeck open to the elements or shaded by canvas covers. Ideal for daytime or evening entertainment, the forward section is fitted with a wet bar with sun pads convertible to sun loungers immediately behind. The central alfresco lounge has four corner sofas each with a drinks table. The raised Jacuzzi behind the communications mast receives spectacular views over the stern and will seat up to four guests.

The main deck salon treats guests to an air-conditioned interior with refreshments from the forward wet bar. To the aft, a circular drinks table seats four close to the doors out onto the main deck aft.

A staircase leads into the sky lounge, which offers an alternative place to relax. The seating is arranged to provide a port sofa and four high-backed armchairs around a grand coffee table, and two additional armchairs are placed around a drinks and games table in the forward starboard corner.

To the aft is the enclosed formal dining area to seat up to 10 guests.

AFT DECK: Shaded al fresco dining area for up to 10 guests with 6 chairs and bench seat aft. Stairwell on the port side leads to the swim platform.
