Overview

Sea Ray completely redesigned the layout of the main deck to feature a theme of openness and light. It calls this design SkyFlow, and not only does it serve to blur the line between inside and outside, but it carries the open feel of light deep into the lower decks. She also has a retractable sunroof increasing your experience on the water. Her owner has all her services up to date and lots of new upholstery and fresh polish and wax. She definitely is one of those "Must See" boats if you are in the market for an immaculate, ready-to-go Sea Ray 470.
