DETAILED INFORMATION

Description

"Sails Call", a 2005 Hunter 466 is a great performance cruiser with lots of elbow room, privacy and storage for family and guests plus a real turn of speed. She is very comfortable with two complete heads, 3 private cabins and a galley with space to create even a holiday meal. Plus, she is easy to sail with furling head and main sails, self tailing winches and all lines led aft to the cockpit. She also has a powerful Yanmar 4 cylinder diesel for those light air days. An autopilot, Furling Genoa and Main make sailing her a real pleasure. "Sails Call" will take you anywhere you want to go be it a winter Caribbean getaway or a weekend gunkhole. She has the equipment and has been maintained to get you there safely and comfortably

Overview

Accommodations This 2005 Hunter 466 has 3 private cabins and two complete Heads. Beginning at the bow is the Owner's Stateroom featuring a separate, private shower on starboard side of cabin entrance and a separate private commode and sink across on port. Each is large and comfortable. There are "his" and "hers" closets and hanging lockers on each side as well. The very comfortable Island Berth is Queen Sized with plenty of storage under. There is lots of room to dress at the foot of the berth as well. The Saloon follows aft with a very large convertible dining table/berth on port that can seat 6+. On Starboard there are a pair of really comfortable Captain Chairs with lots of built-in storage. The Nav Station is aft on starboard and is truly the ship's command center with a functional desk, 12 and 110 volt electric panels as well as battery and generator switches. It is a very well thought out work area with room to store all your "stuff". The Day Head is next aft on starboard convenient to the cockpit and aft berths with a private entrance from the starboard aft cabin. There are 2 private Aft Cabins (one on each side of the companionway) and each has storage and hanging lockers at their entrance. The Galley is across from the Nav Station on Port. It has plenty of counter/work space and storage areas and features separate freezer/refrigerator, 3 burner propane stove/oven, microwave & double bowl sink plus a nifty overhead shelf for dinnerware, etc. The Hunter 466 is comfortable, luxurious and practical.
