WALKTHROUGH

Walkthrough FoxSea Lady is a comfortable two-stateroom cruiser. Boarding her from the swim platform you pass through a transom door into the cockpit area with plenty of room to entertain and watch time pass. Moving forward, you will enter the salon through a sliding glass door. In the salon, there is an electric sofa sleeper to port for added sleeping accommodations. On the starboard side of the salon, there is an additional sofa and mounted smart TV. Midship to port is a large raised dinette to play games, work, or serve meals prepared in the sunken galley to starboard. The master stateroom is forward and has a center queen walk around featuring an on-site head and separate shower. There is a cedar-lined hanging closet, entertainment center with a TV, and plenty of storage. The guest quarters have two twin beds on the portside which can easily be converted into a king-size bed. There is plenty of room for storing belongings in the hanging closet, built-in drawers, and floor storage. The guest head with shower is right next door conveniently located so guests are not disturbed if someone needs to use the head. After climbing the Portside steps from the cockpit, you will find yourself on the flybridge. The bridge consists of a helm station and ample seating for entertaining or to enjoy the view. There is a new Fusion 4 zone Stereo installed in 2020 with speakers throughout to enjoy your music everywhere on the

Salon and Galley

The salon comes complete with an electric convertible sleeper sofa, entertainment center with TV, additional sofa, and an elevated dinette. Just below the dinette is the full galley including a 3 burner electric stove, microwave oven with convection, and a full apartment-sized refrigerator. Beside the fridge is a large pantry with plenty of room to store your goods.

MASTER CABIN

The master Stateroom features a walk-around queen sized bed. There are 4 portholes that can open for ventilation and have shades. Above the bed is a hatch that opens for access or ventilation, including a built-in shade. There is plenty of room to store all your belongings in the closets and drawers. The private on-suite head features a porthole for natural light and ventilation. The shower is separate and partitioned by glass and a glass door

GUEST CABIN

To port just past the galley is a guest stateroom with two twin beds and plenty of storage. The twin beds can easily be transformed into a king. There is a porthole for natural light and ventilation as well as a cover to keep light and heat out. Next to the guest stateroom is a head with a separate shower.

FLYBRIDGE

On the flybridge, you find lots of room to enjoy the view and an easy location to operate the vessel from. The helm features Raymarine electronics, depth sounder, autopilot, and VHF. The full enclosure was replaced in 2019 and is in great shape.

Cockpit and Decks

The rear cockpit is spacious and offers plenty of room to enjoy the view, relax, or fish. This vessel is easy to walk around and access the bow sun deck with rails. There is a windless and anchor locker at the bow. The swim platform includes a swim ladder
