Overview

"Belle Vie" is a unique opportunity on the market. Only 7 Feeling 55 (Alliaura Marine) have been built.

Called "Monomarans" when they appeared on the market, this monohull provides a unique layout for someone looking to entertain, sail comfortably upwind in the comfort of her wide cockpit, double steering at the entrance of the vessel, well protected by a large sprayhood.

She offers the comfort of a catamaran when anchoring and the performance of a monohull when sailing.

My Personal Note: "Other Brands have tried to design a comfortable, fast monohull with a large entertaining space comparable to catamarans. Nor the Senses from Beneteau or the Moodys have succeeded as the Feelings did. They also offer a real tender garage similar to much larger vessels."

Her shallow draft (4.2") keel up, allowing the owner to access the most remote anchorage.

She was acquired in 2018 by a marine professional who owns a full marine business service and maintenance including a boatyard.

From day one of thanks to his skills and his ownership, "Belle Vie" went through a retrofit. More than $ 300,000 has been spent. Now she is ready to sail away for new adventures.

The seller will deliver her anywhere in the World.
