Overview

Price Reduced! Motivated Seller! This well-maintained Nonsuch 30 Ultra is ready to sail! Available to be seen anytime; the Winter Fairclough cover has been removed. With its wishbone and free-standing aluminum rig, "Might As Well" sails well to weather and on a run and the Electric Halyard Winch makes setting the sail a snap. The large cockpit and salon are perfect for a few friends to join you on the water, the galley is spacious, and the roomy head/shower design allows for plenty of room to move around. Call today for more information or to schedule a viewing of this very popular boat! (The current owners are selling only because they have purchased a larger boat for long distance cruising.)
