Overview

This stunning triple cockpit runabout was meticulously built by John Ford in 1999. John was best known for his traditional style triples and raceboats. The boat features a John Hacker style bottom and Chris Craft inspired decks. Cold molded mahogany construction, Chevrolet 454cid big block powerplant. Very nicely appointed inside, full Dietrich style top with side curtains. In addition to storage under each seat and the front deck, custom built-in cabinetry add additional secure storage for equipment and personal items. This triple cockpit is beautifully finished and is a nice example of Ford's craftsmanship. Needs nothing and is ready to enjoy this season!
