Overview

the Wauquiez Centurion 40s is every bit a sailor's sailboat. -Cruising World, 2005 For families or couples, the Centurion 40s offers a blend of sporty performance and practical cruisability. The boat rides smoothly, with little weather helm. Berret/Racoupeau have sculpted an elegant hull that slices through the water and reminds us all that we're out here to experience the joy of sailing. Though she looks like she'd win any race, she is also built for traditional cruising. You will find two appropriate sea berths in the salon settees, a generous sail/gear locker to the port aft, and a mid-ship L-shaped galley. The Centurion 40 s offers two double cabins, separate head and shower compartments and quality cabinetry throughout. Easy access to the water through the convertible transom will have the whole family diving off the boat to swim, snorkel, and scuba. Construction

The hull below the waterline is solid GRP with a Twaron shield (Aramid/kevlar) from bow to stern.
