Overview

The Hunter 37.5 exterior has a sleek uncluttered foredeck, reverse transom and nearly 60' tall mast combine to give this sloop a sleek profile. The cockpit with pedestal steering and large destroyer wheel is roomy enough for 6 people. The 37.5 has the appearance of a high-performance boat with a nod to the Nautor-Swan with its lowered coachroof that blends seamlessly into the foredeck. Construction It features a solid fiberglass hull, balsa-cored deck, Bergstrom & Ridder fractional rig with swept spreaders, balanced spade rudder and two keel options: a deep fin or a shoal-draft bulb with wings. Longitudinal stringers installed in the hull midsection to each side of the keel provide additional structural support. And although there isn't much teak or mahogany on deck, the interior is graced with a mix of exotic woods.
