Combines luxurious comfort, elegant style, and most important, safety. This sloop-rigged, Aluminum Alloy (SEALIUM) sailing catamaran represents the modern styling that SUNREEF is renowned for. An enlarged living area and incredible maneuverability (centralized sail handling equipment and engine controls) make sailing an absolute pleasure and adventure. The vessel is soundly built and well equipped. In addition to her excellent handling qualities, the designers have given special attention to: the vessel's abilities when under power, short-handed operation, comfort, safety, stowage space and service friendliness. The interior design, storage room and equipment are ideal for extended, sustainable stays aboard with optimised living spaces.

The upper deck not only centralizes the sail controls within the helm-station, but also offers a nice cruising location for those wishing to enjoy the sea breeze.
