Overview

Piver Trimaran 50 Sailboat (Opus) for Sale Opus is a daring name to give to a trimaran. To be confident with this choice you need to be certain of the boat design, style, and performance of the vessel you have given to the world. Luckily, Piver was well within their right to bestow this 50-foot 1987 trimaran with such a name, and she more than lives up to it. The custom trimaran boat design is not only stylish in its looks but compared to other boat designs offers unparalleled speed, performance, safety, and comfort. With the smallest gust of wind you will find that the 50 ft trimaran Opus takes it and runs with it taking full advantage of the fully battened mainsail, genoa, furling genoa, and storm jib sails that combine together to give you full control.
