SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Bodacious Too is a 2-cabin, 1 head, Farr designed, Beneteau First 36s7. The boat is currently on the hard in Deltaville, VA. The current owners took possession of her in 2004 and have sailed Bodacious Too on the Chesapeake Bay ever since, hence the low engine hours.

This boat is a fantastic platform for anyone looking for a starter boat or a round the cans racing boat. Bodacious Too has the DNA of all Farr-designed boats, fine lines, fantastic performance and rearing to go.

She has a Classic Mainsail in good condition; a 130% Latell Sails Genoa that was built in 2016 and has hardly been used; a couple of spinnakers add to the sail inventory. It has been hauled, engine serviced and bottom painted annually. Some elbow grease will be required to make Bodacious Too live up to her name, but you can go sailing the moment you take ownership.
