Overview

INEVITABLE is a vintage Burger motor yacht that enjoyed an interior re-fit project undertaken by Patrick Knowles (Patrick Knowles Designs of Fort Lauderdale) in 2005.

The main salon and dining salon were essentially gutted and high gloss raised teak paneling was added. The overhead was changed to tongue and groove white planks with teak batten boards. The aft deck includes similar overhead treatments and features a custom U-shaped bar with high glass teak paneling, including "absolute black" granite countertops. The overhead soffit accommodates crystal stemware.

The master stateroom and guest cabins had all new millwork and stonework as part of the re-fit. The galley surface materials and counter tops were refinished.

The result of Patrick's "labor of love" is a most stunning and traditional yacht ambiance.
