Overview

Rarely does the unveiling of a new Beneteau sailing yacht create as much excitement as did the introduction of the Beneteau 423. Following in the footsteps of the highly successful and evolutionary Beneteau 473, the 423 instantly charmed the sailing press who responded with glowing reviews and top honors, including Cruising World's "Boat of the Year" designation. Sailors were equally impressed with the Beneteau 423, and the model has proven to be one of Beneteau's most popular ever. Little has changed... the Beneteau 423 still earns high praise from those lucky enough to enjoy her charms.

The very popular Beneteau 423 is a beautiful, accommodating, great performing boat that was designed by the world-renowned naval architect firm, Groupe Finot, and is one of the most popular cruising boats ever built by Beneteau.

"Volaeris" has been beautifully kept by its current owner of over 11 years and includes many upgrades. She is currently kept in Beverly, MA.
