SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

The Fowl Hooked is a 35' open bulkhead Charter Boat that has fished near shore out of Oregon Inlet for years. She was built by Sheldon Midgett, a local boat building legend that built a lot of beautiful boats during this era, many of which are still fishing daily off the outer banks.

She is very simple, easy to maintain and super economical. She is built and laid out to go fishing and is turn key ready for anyone aspiring to get into the near shore charter business. She would also be a great boat for the Chesapeake Bay or for a private owner that wanted an easy to deal with rig that is plenty dependable.

With a new repower September of 2021 and other upgrades, the Fowl Hooked is an example of something that doesn't come along often these days; Classic builder, no frills, a simple layout and fresh power....She'll be right up someone's alley...
