Accommodations and Layout This vessel is currently owned by a couple that keep everything ship shape and pay attention to details. The Meridian 381 offers an abundance of space for her captain and guests to enjoy. The flybridge offers a canvas Bimini Top, spacious seating, a functional helm with an excellent point of view. Full instrumentation is close by and easy to view. Stepping down the fiberglass stairs from the flybridge brings you to the aft cockpit which offers a good amount of space for entertaining or relaxing. There is a transom door that allows easy and safe access to the swim platform. There is storage below through hinged floor panels that provide access to storage, generator, batteries and steering gear mechanism. As you enter the main salon through the sliding door, you will immediately notice the spacious interior. Upon entering you will notice the salon, galley and dinette. The sun light through the windows really makes this a family friendly area. This area is well equipped for travel and overnight stays. Engine access is below the salon floor. The U-shaped galley features a double stainless sink, microwave, refrigerator, freezer and plenty of storage for your provisions and kitchenware. Further moving forward, brings you to a private guest stateroom to the starboard, head and shower to port and the master stateroom forward. There are numerous storage centers and hanging lockers for your soft goods.
