Overview

Valentino is a family-owned North Carolina Custom Builder with over 25 years of boat building industry experience. Valentino proudly builds two models 28' and 35 Center Console both are custom built of the highest quality materials to the owner's desires. The cold molded hull is resin infused to provide rigidity and strength while reducing weight. The hull design combines back country draft without sacrificing offshore capabilities. The objective was to produce a fast efficient stable bottom that could navigate the back country or head offshore.
