SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

This 1999 Sea Ray 410 Express is well cared for and lives in fresh water. The cockpit and helm are well layed out for the whole crew. Stepping down into the main salon, the galley is to port and L-shape seating to starboard. An innovative sliding partition(with a custom mural) converts a section of the salon into a small starboard cabin that sleeps two, another pair can bunk on the salon's convertible sofa. The large forward master stateroom with flanking hanging lockers, full-length mirrored doors, and queen-size island bed, also has a seperate door to the port side head. Call me today to arrange your personal showing of this great vessel.
