SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

This spectacular 390 represents all that has made Intrepid such a leader in the boating world. Combined with her Chesapeake Bay seasonal usage and fastidious upkeep by extremely experienced owners, she is both gorgeous and turnkey ready for immediate handover to her next owners.

Intrepid has created a soft, quiet ride with an advanced hull design and construction techniques. This, combined with the smooth power and torque of the Suzuki outboards translates to fuel efficiency rarely seen in a boat this size, especially when considering the amount of cruising comfort this 390 Sport Yacht offers.

Updated electronics, systems, and canvas, a recent detailing, the list goes on. Topsides and engines were recently professionally painted and the polycarbonate enclosure replaced- she shines like a new boat!

We do not expect her to last long in today's market, so please call now.
