Overview

"Quixotic" started out as David Marlow's personal yacht, but he only had time for a few short trips. She was featured in several boat shows before being purchased by her current owner. Quixotic will not be on the market long as her classic lines, attention to detail, superb craftsmanship, and overall presence, make her one of the most sought after Marlow's in her class! The 66 model is about as big as most owner/operators want to run. However, she has a full crew area with a private entrance for those that want a crew.

The interior of this Marlow Explorer brings the perfect blend of old-world craftsmanship, and space age materials, thus creating an environment that is both inspirational and distinctly unique to the Marlow brand.

This late model yacht has all the most popular options and has a CAT $0 deductible engine warranty paid through February 2026.
