Overview

This 2012 Everglades wit full tower is located in Islamorada comes equipped with Triple 300 Yamahas Freshly serviced New bottom paint New Vessel View Gauge units both stations New Garmin VHF Radio New Batteries New Power Steering Pump Recent DetailThe Everglades 355 Center Console boats for sale are designed to be everything you need it to be and a large part of its versatility stems from the smart seating options that are available on the boat. The transom area of the boat can be perfect for entertaining as well as fishing with seats that can be folded down for ample seating or folded in flat to the side panel to open the deck up for walking around fishing. At the bow of the boat, the versatility is further extended with the option to use the space as the standard wrap around seating arrangements, a table style setting, or a third option. The third option allows for the table to be automatically employed to mid-level. This action turns the entire space into a full lounge area for maximum comfort for you and your guests.AT THE HELM Much attention has been paid to the design of the helm onboard the Everglades 355 Center Console boats. The helm area allows for three people to sit comfortably at the controls with the option of sitting or standing with flip up bolsters. Navigation is easy with the ability to customize the dashboard to suit your individual needs. There is space for up to two large navigation screens. There is even an option to extend the controls into a top tower for maximum visibility. The possibilities are endless on this remarkably designed and luxurious center console vessel. Customize it to your liking and see how far it can take you.The twin 39-gallon insulated fish boxes, flanking the 355T?s 38-gallon transom livewell, can be converted to a refrigerator and freezer as an option. An additional 120 gallons of insulated-fish?box capacity is built into the forward deck.A covered rigging station abaft the helm seats features dedicated storage for fishing tools, as well as spools of leader material. It also has a molded-in sink, freshwater faucet, twin tackle cabinets and a fold-out, aft-facing seat with a gimbal. Forward of the console is seating for three, but the middle backrest folds down to create an armrest.
