Overview

'The Belly' is a freshwater kept, US built motor yacht which was designed by the famous superyacht designer Nuvolari-Lenard in Italy. Her semi-V hull with a solid fiberglass bottom and Volvo Penta IPS drives means this yacht is not only is a good sea going vessel, but she is very easy to maneuver too. 'The Belly' features a unique sliding transom that glides aft with a push of a button to create additional cockpit space. The well-appointed interior features dark Zebrano wood, black granite counters, and cherry flooring throughout. Her three cabin and two head layout with large entertaining spaces means she is a perfect yacht for entertaining and also for longer cruises to the islands with family and friends.

Her key features include:

- Raymarine Navigation Electronics
- Updated Low maintenance Sea-decking / Raptor deck
- Updated Fusion sound system
- New hull wrap
- Sunroof with updated window tint
- Freshwater kept with transferable moorage on Lake Union
- Low hour Volvo Penta IPS drives with joystick for easy docking
