Overview

PRICE REDUCED!

Adelaide Black is a 1981 Vagabond 47 Ketch in project condition. This vessel was refit in 2015-2016 with new sails, rigging watermaker, rebuilt engine and much more. The vessel suffered a knock down in big seas with ports open and was flooded. Not Sunk. The vessel was rescued and brought to Wilmington where she sits. The current owner began restoring her but health issues force the sale of the boat. The vessel is structurally sound including hull and rigging but will need cosmetic, electrical and mechanical work. Some of the work needed includes replacing teak decks, rebuilding the engine, some teak trim work, seacocks replaced on new through-hulls and probably some wiring.

Please see the details below including descriptions, photos, descriptive video and 360 photos.

Adelaide Black is available to see by appointment in Wilmington NC.
