Overview

50m superyacht Ada 50 Z sold and inbuild with 2025 deliveryWritten by Alexander Griffiths30 January 2023 | 20:30, the Turkish shipbuilder located in Bodrum, has been commissioned to build an all-new 50-metre superyacht, conceived by . The Ada 50 Z has been sold and is expected to be delivered to her owner in 2025. The concept and exterior design of the Ada 50 Z were penned by , while her engineering was overseen by Norse Design – and naval architecture by . “It was really hard seven to eight months to develop this baby. But the team behind this success was huge. I want to thank Onur Tekin (CEO of) and Ran Goldstein () for their support,” Selahattin Uldas of commented on LinkedIn. The sub-500 GT superyacht features clean, modern exterior lines and a straight bow. Her cascading aft decks are generous in size and offer guests plenty of opportunity to enjoy the alfresco lifestyle. The centrepiece of her beach club is a plunge pool, which is surrounded by loungers. Thanks to hydraulic wings, the space can expand to welcome even more guests to enjoy the space. The Ada 50 Z also features a second pool on her foredeck this time wrapped by fixed sunpads. The Ada 50 Z offers 497 GT of interior volume and offers accommodation for as many as 12 guests, across six well-appointed staterooms. Her owner's suite is voluminous and comes complete with a private balcony, a Jacuzzi and large sweeping windows that offer panoramic views. The Ada 50 Z can also host ten crew across five cabins. While her exterior design and build are Turkish, her interior spaces are all Italian, curated by the Florence-based studio . The Ada 50 Z has a modern interior design and boasts an impressive saloon and dining area. Attention has also been paid to the interior and exterior synergy, maximising the feel at sea. In terms of performance, the Ada 50 Z will be equipped with twin 1,325 horsepower engines that will deliver a top speed of 15 knots. expects to complete her by June 2025.
