Overview

This Haven 12 1/2, Termite, was privately built from the designer, Joel White's, plans, available through the WoodenBoat store. A very popular daysailer, many were built by professional builders, boat schools, and private individuals. She has been well maintained and sailed and has been out of the water for several years, stored under cover. Termite has a traditional gaff-rigged sail plan, wooden spars and comes with sails and her own trailer. If you want a proven well-designed, excellent sailing, and traditional centerboard sloop, she is worth your consideration!
