Overview

This Peapod was well built by Tyler Proctor, Jr. in Bar Harbor, Maine in 1980. Her design came from Howard Chapelle's American Small Sailing Craft plans. She has been stored inside since new, and launched several summers. She comes with varnished spruce spars, sail, boards, and rudder-tiller assembly. She sails and rows well, so if you're looking for a classic Maine peapod, she is one to consider!
