Overview

This like-new boat was launched in 2017, and built by boatbuilder Richard Stanley Custom Boats, a design of a wooden hull with a molded fiberglass deck, cabin, and shelter assembly. She was built for either commercial or pleasure use with a pot hauler. Her large platform will accommodate many options of use. Her graceful sheer with traditional wheelhouse area are what make this Downeast boat both attractive and functional. And she offers the stability of a wooden boat with the ease of maintaining a fiberglass deck assembly.
