Overview

Meet Running on Waves, a 64-metre-long three-mast barquentine, for the adventure of a lifetime. She is a sailing cruise vessel of high ocean-going class that can explore any region except for glacial zones in winter, and that follows the highest safety standards. She is elegant, fast and eco-friendly, and can access small marinas and secluded coves. She has anchor stabilizers, and extremely low fuel consumption. She is an established charter business for large groups and events.
