Overview

Boarding at the swim platform, you will see a large, hydraulic swim platform. The transom storage offers space for hanging ropes, fenders, etc, also access to the glendenning cable master, dock water connection and Hydraulic Swim grid remote. Entering the cockpit from the port side transom gate, you will see portside hot/cold transom shower and U-shaped seating to starboard. Immediately forward is a small bar/prep area with a sink, Refrigerator and cabinet storage. Stepping up into the helm area, there is a comfortable lounge seating to port, with a double wide helm pod to starboard. The helm seating swivels aft to create useable entertaining space when you are not underway. The hardtop also features dual electric opening skylights over the helm area for natural lighting. The helm has dual Raymarine MFDs mounted behind the steering wheel, with an updated Mercruiser engine display screen above. The Zeus pod joystick is easily reached from the starboard helm seat to make maneuvering the vessel easy and simple. Entering the cabin area from the helm sliding door, you will step down floating teak steps into the main salon. The interior is adorned with dark cherry interior throughout. The salon dinette area is immediately to starboard with the galley set on the port side. The master bedroom is forward with a queen size island berth centerline on the boat and an en-suite head to port. Moving aft from the entry stairs, the guest stateroom features two twin beds midship with another en-suite head to port. The bow area provides the finishing touch to a wonderful entertaining platform with a large deck sunpad.
