Overview

Introducing the completely refitted and exquisite 62ft, Motor Sailer, TRADE WIND. A 1938 John Alden design. Solidly built of teak on steam-bent oak frames. She has won many prestigious awards for her craftsmanship and is a head turner wherever she sails. From the moment you step aboard, you will be captivated by the yacht's details and graceful lines, showcasing a perfect balance between classic charm and modern sophistication. Truly a vessel with comfort and ease underway and living aboard in mind. The owner paid close attention to meticulous details and used the finest materials on the interior and exterior. With its elevated deck, this motor sailer offers a unique vantage point to take in breathtaking panoramic views.
