Overview

Port Engine requires complete rebuild. Starboard Engine requires 1000 hr service. Gel coat does have the well known cosmetic "egg shelling" defects of that era. Other wise boat is sound and worthy of the investments that would get her to the desired condition, both mechanically and cosmetically. Replacement cost is 3.12 million dollars with a 2 year wait so it is easy to see the value here. She is a quality convertible sportfish with very comfortable interior accommodations that features a very spacious salon and galley that is on the same level and open to the salon. There are (3) staterooms and (2) headsShe is well equipped for serious fishing pursuits or comfortable cruising with friends and family.Serious inquiries only please.
