Overview

The current owner purchased this boat a little over four years ago with just under 1,000 hours. Their goal was to enhance their family's boating experience. Instead of putting the boat away for the winter in New Jersey, they decided to move the boat south each winter to give them the opportunity to use the boat frequently in warmer climates. They've had some great times on this boat while adding many upgrades and following strict maintenance guidelines. Their lifestyle is changing again and they are looking forward to their next adventure. They are in search of the next caretaker for this beautiful boat.
