DEMO BOAT WITH 60 HOURS, BRING ANY OFFER

If "the devil is in the details," the Lazzara LSX 67 is devilishly delightful, graced with an angelic touch. This yacht is a heavenly retreat, envision yourself anchored in an azure sea on a private floating oasis, surrounded by teak and tactile beauty, immersed in luxury. Leisurely read and bask in the sun before diving into the water for a swim, snorkel, or dive, or take a tender to explore nearby islands. The Lazzara LSX 67 beckons both aquatic adventures and weekend getaways in the Keys, trips to the Bahamas, or cruises with family and friends to splendid dinners.

LSX 67: MODEL BACKGROUND AND DESIGN

Meticulous design details characterize this 67' Express Yacht, crafted in Antalya, Turkey, a city surrounded by natural resources with a seafaring history. The wood-working detail, industrial hinges, and pleated Roman shades with notches resting evenly on wood windowsills showcase pride, craftsmanship, and dedication in design and construction. The straight bow of the hull creates a stunning profile, maintaining its elegance even after dropping anchor from the dedicated flush hatch.

STERN AND SWIM PLATFORM

When the aft deck opens, the 16' beam extends with teak wings reaching into the sea, creating an expansive beach patio for lounging and dining. An under-gunwale window, covered by teak lattice when extended, ensures stability of visibility. Triangular fabric sunscreens at the bow and aft deck, supported by carbon fiber poles, add practical shade with a festive touch.

The hydraulic swim platform descends into the water, providing ample space for personal watercraft, a tender, or water-sports toys. Boarding doors forward to port and starboard, along with a transom door, facilitate easy entry from the platform. The boarding ladder, painted to match the hull with teak steps and a proprietary design, exemplifies attention to detail.

SECOND HELM STATION

Adjacent to the boarding doors on the top deck, an additional helm station and controls are discreetly hidden beneath hatches, complemented by a teak-covered grill to starboard and an electrically actuated TV to port. Thoughtful details abound, including teak-framed cup holders that combine fashion with function.

Open space prevails, with glass doors leading from the aft deck to the Master Stateroom, awarded the Best Master Cabin Design for 2023 by the International Yacht and Aviation Awards. The full-beam master space features an aft-facing king bed, quiet surroundings, ample storage in wood cabinetry, rich leather upholstery, and expansive windows with privacy shades.

BRIDGE DECK

Ascending from the aft deck, teak steps lead to the upper deck, featuring a large dining table with U-shaped seating and glass door entry to the salon. The broad sloping windows and electric sunroof infuse the indoor space with natural light. The technologically advanced helm, with glass enclosed controls and a Boning vessel alarm monitoring system, caters to the captain's needs. Luxurious leather helm seats, raised screens, and a curved glass windshield enhance visibility and elegance.

GALLEY

Stairs lead down to the galley, discreetly hiding laundry and three guest staterooms. Despite being below, the galley feels airy with natural light over wooden cabinets and stone countertops.

A starboard dining space and an additional fold-out provide versatility.

VIP STATEROOM

The en suite VIP stateroom, amidship, exudes elegance, while additional staterooms offer comfort and privacy. A crew quarter with twin bunks is located in the bow lower level.

BOW AREA AND SIDE DECKS

Teak side decks, framed by wood and stainless handrails, lead to a spacious bow with a U-shaped lounge, teak dining table, and a large sun pad. Multiple social areas cater to both socializing and privacy, a luxury on a 67' yacht accommodating eight guests and crew.

The Lazzara 67 LSX is perfect for those seeking a statement or relishing in exquisite details and open spaces, creating a heavenly escape to anywhere.
