SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

The Raven was designed by Roger McAleer built by Cape Cod Ship Builders, and is still in production today. Original concept was a One-Design Club racer, now she is the perfect afternoon day sailor. She is incredibly stiff in a breeze and is remarkably quick in light air, easily handled by two, but comfortable for 6 when afternoon sailing. She went thru a complete re-fit, and is in pristine condition. Complete with Roller Furling, 12VDC electrical system, Torqeedo Electric motor with removable side mount. Her centerboard draws 5'4" when down, but less than 1' when up. Custom designed Kick Up Rudder, allows her to sail in no water at all. VERY MOTIVATED SELLER!!!!
