SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Built by the prestigious Brazilian shipyard, INACE, the 2026 Inace Explora 131 is the epitome of maritime class, power, and refinement. This 131-foot (39.93m) luxury motor yacht encapsulates innovative design, unmatched performance, and exquisite craftsmanship. One of the recent additions to their venerable portfolio, the INACE Explora 131, showcases the shipbuilder's commitment to creating yachts that provide impeccable quality and unrivalled sea experiences. Stepping aboard the 2026 Inace Explora 131, one is greeted with a sense of sophistication and luxury. With a length of 131 feet, this yacht offers a generous space for its discerning owners and guests. The layout of this vessel is conceived thoughtfully to optimize the use of space for maximum comfort and functionality. Each square meter has been ingeniously used, leaving no room wasted. Crafted by the experienced designers and builders at Modus Studio, the Explora 131 brings together a stylish, contemporary design with traditional yachting touches. Her exterior lines are sleek and modern, yet there's an emphasis on sustainability and lasting craftsmanship. The yacht's sturdy hull is designed to withstand challenging weather conditions and rough sea conditions, a hallmark of the INACE brand. The elegant interiors of the 2026 Inace Explora 131 offer the ultimate comfort for long sea journeys. One of the unique features of this model is its capacious salons and well designed cabins, finished with exquisite materials. High-quality wood, plush textiles, opulent marble and polished stainless steel can be found throughout the ship, creating an ambiance of luxury and tranquility. The ship can comfortably accommodate up to 10 guests in five spacious staterooms, each with ensuite facilities, promising privacy and comfort for all guests on board. This luxury yacht is not only about aesthetics and comfort, but also about performance and reliability. The 2026 Inace Explora 131 is fitted with advanced engines, capable of pushing the vessel to a top speed of 15 knots, while maintaining a cruising speed of 12 knots. This yacht is ideally suited to long cruises, with a substantial fuel capacity allowing for extended passages at sea without the need to refuel. The Inace Explora 131 also boasts state-of-the-art technology and navigation systems for a safe and easy sailing experience. Even the kitchen is equipped with cutting-edge appliances for a professional culinary experience. Also, there is a rich array of entertainment facilities ranging from satellite television and advanced audio-visual systems to water sports equipment for the adventurous souls. The exterior decks of the Inace Explora 131 are just as impressive, offering ample outdoor living areas ideal for sunbathing, dining al fresco or simply enjoying the fresh sea breeze. A Jacuzzi, barbecue grill, and a plush seating area create a relaxed outdoor experience, perfect for socializing or soaking up the sun. One of the outstanding features is a hydraulic swim platform on the stern of the yacht that gives frequent swimmers easy access to the sea and back. The 2026 Inace Explora 131 encapsulates the essence of luxurious seafaring that combines refinement, performance, and innovation in equal measure. With its resplendent interiors, superior functionality, and uncompromising comfort, the Explora 131 is not just a vessel but a promise of an unparalleled yachting experience. This remarkable yacht from INACE is more than just a testament to the shipbuilder's long-standing tradition of excellence; it is their commitment to deliver vessels that fulfill every seafarer's desire for style, comfort, and adventure.

Whether you're a veteran mariner or a first-time boat owner, the 2026 Inace Explora 131 is truly an investment worth considering.
