Overview

The Valiant 50 is a proven bluewater cruising sailboat with numerous circumnavigations to her credit. The hand laid solid fiberglass hull with high density structural foam stringers is massively strong, which is further enhanced by the fact that all bulkheads and furniture is bonded directly to the hull, has earned the reputation of being “over-built.”

Volvamus was the first Valiant 50 to be built at the Texas factory and is still owned by her original owner. However, there is a time a place for everything and the owner is now needing to spend more time on land based activities. The owner did a significant amount of work on the boat over the years and mainly sailed it seasonally in New England waters. As such, there are remarkably few hours on the engine (only 305 hours).

Volvamus is not a new boat, however she is a very well built boat with a well earned reputation as a boat that can “go anywhere and do anything.” If you are looking for boat that is safe and comfortable, while also sailing well in a wide variety of conditions, the Valiant 50 may be the boat you have been looking for.
