Overview

The Swan 60 S Flyer is a 2016 model fast Cruising Sailboat, constructed by world-renowned yacht maker, Nautor's Swan. As a provenance of exceptional craftsmanship, this vessel becomes an epitome of elegance and luxury while featuring a myriad of state-of-the-art amenities. With a magnificent length of 61' 9" (18.82m), the FLYER guarantees comfort, durability, and impressive performance on each sailing journey embarked upon. A member of the Nautor Swan's model series 60S - 201, the FLYER is a distinctly sophisticated and masterfully thought-out yacht. It seeks to embody the essence of a cruising sailboat while incorporating modern comforts and finishes that ensure that your sea voyage remains a memorable experience. Built by Nautor's Swan, a Finnish company with a rich legacy spanning over 50 years, the FLYER is a testament to their steady commitment to quality and innovation. Renowned for creating some of the most stylish, resilient, and innovative yachts worldwide, Nautor's Swan's 60S - 201 series showcases a fresh take on cruiser design. The FLYER, built in 2016, is a fruit of this vision, boasting impeccable construction and meticulous attention to detail which is evident throughout the yacht. The FLYER, with a length that touches slightly over 18 meters, has an arresting presence. The design lends it an air of majesty and dominance, as it rules over the waves beneath it with unparalleled grace. This robust size doesn't only add to the aesthetics but also provides generous living and storage space, making your cruising comfortable and hassle-free. As a cruising sailboat model, the FLYER provides for comfortable longer distance journeys on the water. A proven track record of robustness, the design is aimed at being at home, on any waters, be it tranquil lakes or choppy sea waves. The reliable hull design provides for excellent seaworthiness, coupled with a performance-oriented Seldén rigging system, making it empowered for smoothly cruising through tough marine conditions. The deck of the FLYER is a result of thoughtful planning, a befitting testament of the Nautor's Swan design philosophy. There is ample space for crew movement, a critical aspect for blue water cruisers like the FLYER. The ample area on the stern is specially designed for lounging and sunbathing or for holding small gatherings under the sky. On the interior, the vessel reveals its superior accommodation plan. The FLYER offers four cabins, each designed with luxury in mind and adorned with high-quality wood and plush textures. The master cabin provides a queen-size bed, while the remaining two offer twin beds. Each cabin has ensuite facilities, ensuring comfortable living quarters. The main salon area features a large dining area able to seat up to eight people comfortably, providing a picturesque ocean view backdrop. The FLYER's galley is fitted with modern kitchen appliances, upbeat décor, and sufficient storage space, making it easy to prepare and serve meals onboard. With precision-engineered mechanics, FLYER sails with a magnetic aura, a testament of Nautor's Swan dedication to delivering an incredible sailing experience. It is fitted with a powerful engine, ensuring reliable performance under motor power in all sea conditions. An easy-to-handle sailing system helps in maneuvering the boat smoothly, even in tight spaces. In conclusion, FLYER is a high-end cruising sailboat, embodying everything you would expect of a vessel from Nautor's Swan. It stands for strength with its robust build, encompasses luxury with its well-thought interior design, and promises a smooth cruising experience with precision-perfected mechanics. A ride aboard the FLYER is not just a journey across waters; it is an exploration of superior sailing, the perfect blend of modern conveniences, and the timeless allure of the sea. The FLYER truly lives up to its name, flying elegantly over the sea, offering a romantic evocation of the golden age of sailing.
