Overview

JUSTICE is one of the largest and fastest examples of the renowned American Commuter Yachts. Originally commissioned by Jeremiah Milbank and named JEM, this vessel swiftly transported him between his home in Greenwich, CT and his office in Manhattan, NY during the 1930s. While primarily designed for day trips, JUSTICE features two elegantly appointed cabins suitable for overnights and extended cruising, along with a fully equipped galley and accommodations for crew.

For the past 19 years, her current owner, the yachts sixth, has based JUSTICE out of Montauk, NY, and South Florida, maintaining her beautifully. A sight to behold as she effortlessly reaches speeds up to 32 knots, JUSTICE represents a truly distinctive and rare opportunity in the world of yachting.
