Overview

The Robinhood 36 sailboat is a stunning design by Carl Alberg. When Cape Dory ceased operations in 1991, the 36 hull molds were scattered until settling at Robinhood Marine in Maine, where they were built on a semi-custom basis using better materials and processes. The Robinhood 36 looks sleek and at ease in the water with a subtle sheer line and low freeboard. The Robinhood 36 is highly regarded for its beautiful lines, solid construction, and seaworthy design.
