Overview

---

Pura Vida is no stranger to sailing the Caribbean! Formerly known as Head Over Keels, she was lovingly taken care of and pulled out every year and stored with a full vessel enclosure to protect it from the weather. During the cruising season, the owner lived aboard and traveled throughout Florida, Bahamas and occasionally further South. Head Over Heels was sold to its new owner back in 2019 where they named her Pura Vida. But for some reason, never changed the name on the boat. However, she has been maintained with love. With solar panel, water maker, in-mast, and all lines running to the cockpit she is a great choice for single handing. If you're looking for a reliable and well-maintained boat that's ready for new adventures, "Pura Vida" is an excellent choice.
