Overview

Spring is here, soon in full force, spend it on the water. Many folks are now looking for a smart way to work in DC with the new administration. Compare this cost to a house or condo. "Fianchetto" is an extremely rare twin diesel version of this popular aft cabin model. You won't find another Cummins diesel powered 38' Carver on the market, especially where the owner is very anxious to let you buy this double cabin yacht below buyer's market value. A waterfront condo that moves. Come see her and fall in love. .

DETAILED INFORMATION

Vessel Walkthrough

Enter up onto the fully enclosed aft deck to a spacious recreation area with room for dining and dancing. Step up to the fly bridge and see the center helm position and navigation station with full instrumentation. Seating up here is abundant and affords a 360 degree view of the water. Down 3 steps from the aft deck is the salon. An L-shaped hide a bed lounge and an easy chair across to port. There is excellent engine room access from this salon.

Continuing aft through the salon and down 3 steps is the master stateroom. A full size berth and ensuite head with shower pampers the owner. Forward of the salon is the U-shaped galley with a tiled counter top and abundant storage. Opposite the galley is the convertible dinette. Toward the bow is the forward stateroom with a queen size bed, ensuite head and shower. A warm and welcoming stateroom for a VIP guest.

As you meander back through the boat you daydream about taking a quiet cruise with family or friends.
