DETAILED INFORMATION

Accommodations

This vessel has a large cockpit suitable for fishing or diving with a starboard side transom door and a custom swim dive ladder. At the aft end of the cockpit is a centerline live bait well molded into the transom, with a large storage compartment/fish hold just forward of the live well. At port forward end of the cockpit is a bait prep center with tackle center underneath. At starboard forward end of cockpit is the helm station with bench seating and a leaning post. Forward of the helm and tackle center is a port side "L" shaped settee and starboard side bench seat, both with under storage. The helm station seats, tackle center seats and deck are electronically raised for generator and battery access. The cabin entry is through an offset to port sliding door to galley immediately to port with a full head and shower opposite to starboard. Forward of the galley and head is a large lower v-berth and port and starboard upper berths. A large hatch leads from above v-berth to large foredeck with an anchor locker and pulpit. The vessel is an ideal Sport Fisherman!
